Sarnia and Port Huron in Orthographical Conflict.

SARNIA, May 1st.

The International Spelling Match, between a Canadian spelling team selected from Sarnia and an American team from Port Huron, came off yesterday evening under the auspices of the Port Huron Ladies' Library Association, and was an immense success. The spacious hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and members had to turn away for want of room. Judge Harris, of Port Huron, occupied the chair. Senator Vidal, of Sarnia, Judge Mitchell, of Port Huron, and a number of other gentlemen acted as referees. Judge Harris opened the proceedings by hoping that nothing might result from the contest to mar the friendly feeling now existing between the Governments of Great Britain and the American Republic. The first test, oral spelling for thirty minutes, gave a victory for the Americans, their team making five mistakes against six by the Canadians. The next test was writing out fifty words from dictation. Of the Sarnia spellers, four had perfect papers against one among the Port Huronites, but their aggregate number of mistakes footed up 79 for Sarnia, to 45 for Port Huron. The last test was an "old-fashioned spell down," to last till eleven o'clock. The chances appeared evenly balanced, and as the hour drew near the excitement grew intense. When at last the chairman's gavel descended, seven Canadians had survived the ordeal, while only six Michigans had kept their feet and the victory was awarded to the Canadians amid immense applause. The return match is expected to come off at an early date.

Important to Newspaper Publishers.

The Postmaster-General publishes the following regulations: On and after 1st May next publishers of newspapers and periodicals in Canada, on exhibiting to the postmaster of the office at which such newspapers and periodicals may be posted for prepayment a permission from the Postmaster General to that effect will be allowed to make prepayment on their papers and periodicals addressed as above at the rate of 1 cent for each pound bulk weight or any fraction of a pound weight; such papers and periodicals must in evidence of payment bear the words "prepaid by publisher" on the address to distinguish them from those posted under the ordinary regulations. Papers and periodicals so prepaid by publishers are to be delivered to the persons to whom addressed without further charge for Canadian postage. Special instructions will be sent for the guidance of postmasters at places where newspapers and periodicals are published in the Dominion and at whose offices the above prepaid postage will be collected. On the 1st of October next the pre-payment of newspapers posted from the office of publication in Canada, will be obligatory in all cases, under the new statute which comes into force at that date; but, until then, pre-payment of newspapers will be optional, and when Canadian newspapers sent from the office of publication are not posted pre-paid, the postage at the ordinary rate of 5c per ¼ for a weekly paper, and at the same proportionate rate for a paper of more frequent issue, will have to be collected on delivery, from the subscribers, as usual, until the 1st of October, 1875. On and after the 1st May next, the rates of postage on newspapers and periodical publications, printed and published in Canada, and issued not less frequently than once a month from an office of publication or news agency, addressed and posted from an office in Canada, by and from the same to regular subscribers or news agents in the United States, will be one cent per lb. weight, or any fraction of a pound weight; which must be prepaid in money at the office at which posted. The rate on transient newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada and addressed to the United States will be one cent per 4 ounces or fraction of 4 ounces, which must be prepaid by postage stamps. Newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada and addressed to the United States may be posted singly at a postage rate of half a cent each, which must in all cases be prepaid by postage stamp.

A lady asked a very silly Scotch nobleman how it happened that the Scotch who came out of their own country were, generally speaking, men of more ability than those who remained at home. "Oh! madame," said he, "the reason is obvious. At every outlet there are persons stationed to examine all who pass, that, for the honour of the country, no one be permitted to leave it who is not a man of understanding." "Then," said she, "I suppose your lordship was smuggled."

Miscellaneous.

Come ye citizens and strangers
Miners, Sailors and Western Rangers,
Listen to the truthful story,
Of Frank Campbell of Victoria.
He in truthful words will tell you,
Just the goods he has to sell you.
Mind ye now he isn't joking,
If you are fond of Chewing and Smoking,
Or if you are given to snuffing
What he keeps does not need puffing.
He has brands will suit you really,
Tobacco users prize them dearly;
From all parts of the "Old Dominion,"
He has stock and his opinion
Is that none can suit you better,
They will please you to the letter.
His Cigars, just from 'Havana,"
Smoke in the most lovely manner;
Meerchaum Pipes of style and fashion,
Just to suit each taste and passion;
And it is in Canada stated,
His Tobaccos are celebrated;
Green Seal, Straight Cut, all go,
Big Lick, Big Cut, Wind Sap, also,
All the Fine Cut brands for chewing,
That your teeth will never ruin:
Pipes to suit the inveterate smoke
Cards for playing Sinch or Poker.
Pipes of brier and stems of cherry,
More than any man can carry;
It would take a week to tell you
All the things he has to sell you,
While in town you may 2-o stopping,
At the "Adelphi Corner" drop in;
Campbell you'll find at that location,
Ready to give you information.
Or to see you well provided,
With what is by all decided
The smoker's and the chewer's glory,
The best and cheapest in Victoria.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
FOR RESTORING GREY HAIR
TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY & COLOR

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary disposition, all turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, by long and extensive use, has proven that it stops the falling of the hair immediately; often renews the growth, and always surely restores its color, when faded or gray. It stimulates the nutritive organs to healthy activity, and preserves both the hair and its beauty. Thus brashy, weak or sickly hair becomes glossy, pliable and strengthened; lost hair regrows with lively expression; falling hair is checked and stablished; thin hair thickens; and faded or gray hair resume their original color. Its operation is sure and harmless. It cures dandruff, heals all humors, and keeps the scalp cool, clean and soft—under which conditions diseases of the scalp are impossible.

As a dressing for ladies' hair, the VIGOR is praised for its grateful and agreeable perfume, and valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

Daily British Colonist.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 29TH, 1875.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

REGISTER! REGISTER!!

Electors of British Columbia. The Ministry succeeded, with the aid of a servile and corrupt majority, in forcing through the Legislature, under false pretences of the old law having been disallowed, a new Qualification and Registration of Voters Act. This Act not only surrounds the franchise right with unnecessary and vexatious complications and restrictions amounting practically to a return to the old system of property qualification, but it imposes upon you the necessity of ANNUAL REGISTRATION and of going before a Magistrate every year to swear to your own identity, &c., &c. There can be no doubt that this law will operate largely as a disfranchiser in the country districts; as it is too much to expect farmers to leave their work in seed time and travel in many instances a day's journey in order to comply with the vexatious and arbitrary provisions of an illiberal law which ought never to have been passed, and the only conceivable object of which was to decimate the ranks of voters which Ministers feared. A GE REAL ELECTION IS AT HAND. You have only till the FIRST DAY OF JUNE on the Island, and the FIRST DAY OF JULY on the Mainland, to register, and it remains for you to show that you appreciate and deserve the rights of freemen by rallying around the Ballot-box and securing the return of such men to the next House as shall redeem your freedom and hurl from power men who are hurrying your country on to financial ruin! It is for you, by one grand uprising—one patriotic effort, to defeat the diabolical object of the new law.

"Humbug 'em."

Mr. Thomas Harris, J. P., hits the nail on the head when he attributes the cloud thrown on his power to register voters to the influence of a "silent power." That "silent power" is known to be the Local Government, who, reposing in fancied security upon the Anti-Registration Bill, fondly fancied that few voters would trouble themselves to surmount the difficulties that had been set in their path and register their claims. Down to Wednesday last every member of the Government had done all in his power to discourage registration; and one, at least, had gone so far as to prophecy that the number of votes registered would be less than one half that of any previous year. On Wednesday they heard with dismay that the number already reached 700. A private consultation with a few friends was at once held and the Chief Commissioner was eloquent in the expression of his alarm. "I was told," he is reported to have said, "that the obstacles to registration under the new Bill were so great that instead of nine hundred voters I should have to handle only about 400; but 700 are now in and a many more will record before Tuesday next." "Why didn't you," urged one of the friends, "take hold and register a lot of names yourself?" "Oh," groaned the poor man, "I can't! I said in the House that I didn't believe in large voters' lists and I've told so many that they're not entitled to register that I'm afraid to ask any one now." After a long consultation it came out that Mr. Harris, J. P., had registered a larger number of names than any other Justice. A bright thought flashed across the mind of one of the friends: "Harris is not a J. P. for the whole Province. His commission is only for Saanich. Attack the validity of his registration—tell the public that he can only register names in Saanich; send one of your clerks over to the Collector's office to make a list of all Harris' registrations; and do you, Beaven, get a horse and a buggy (at Government expense, of course) and a J. P. and drive round to all the parties whose names appear on that list and re-register them. By that means you can lay claim to a patriotic desire to serve them, and some may be green enough to forget the part you took in getting up the Bill and may be induced to vote for you." "But," urged a more conscientious member of the party, "the law says that 'a Justice of the Peace may take declarations.' Harris being 'a Justice' is clearly entitled under the Act." "Never mind," quoth the Attorney-General, "Tell the people the registration is bad, anyhow. Humbug them! You've got to make your point or fail. When I told the Victorians the Terms were not altered at all, didn't they believe it? And when I said that I would have 500 men working on the Dry Dock by April, and 1500 men working on the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway by June, blessed if some of the traders didn't go and double their orders for goods, and they have got them all in stock yet. If I were to tell the people that the road is already commenced some of them would believe me. Humbug 'em, I say!" The party laughed heartily at this—all but the conscientious man, who took his stand on the Act, and defied the Attorney General to oust him. Beaven's scruples (if he ever had any) were overcome by the Attorney-General's advice to "humbug 'em!" and he may be seen and heard in every nook and granny of the city and suburbs telling electors that "Harris' registrations" are bad and that his are the only simon-pure articles. It remains to be seen if this scheme to win back the forfeited favor of the people of Victoria will succeed. The trick is worthy of a pettifogging lawyer. The "conscientious man" of the party was right in his reading of the law. Mr. Harris is a J. P. and as such is entitled to witness a declaration under the statute. Although we advise all parties who registered with Mr. Harris to again register their names, we are still of opinion that the first registration will be held to be good. The interference of the Government with the Voters' List amounts to tampering and they have no legal authority to act as they are now doing. Of course Mr. Beaven will not call on avowed enemies of the Government, and all such who do not re-register will be attacked at the Court of Revision and deprived, if possible, of their right to vote. It will then be time for the Supreme Court to step in and punish the chief actors in this tampering business.

Punctuality.

VICTORIA, May 28th, 1875.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST: — Is there any motive or necessity for the dreadful and unaccustomed punctuality of the "Enterprise?" She started this morning leaving behind your humble servant, who wished to be a passenger, when by some of the clocks in town it was not 8 o'clock. Very recently another passenger was left behind who, I am credibly informed, was present at 8 minutes before 8. I heard on another occasion the Captain countermand his own order to "let go", because it wanted 3 minutes, my own time said 5 minutes. In a place like this, where there is no public standard, could not 5 or ten minutes latitude be allowed for irregularity. Truly yours,

PUNCTUALITY.

HOUSE FURNISHING.—The new patterns of Brussels, Tapestry, Kidderminster and Felt Carpets, Hearth Rugs to match. Beautiful Cretonnes and Chintzes, Damasks and Reps in all colors, Lace Curtains and Valences, Antimacassars, Table Linen, Sheetings, Blankets, Quilts, Blind Linen, Towelling, &c., &c. A full stock of all these materials is now open at London House.—Turner, Beeton & Tunstall.

OLD CHICORY is almost a thing of the past. Finlayson's Coffee presides over the present. It has now superseded what used to be claimed as "superior to any other manufactured on this coast," and will soon be found on every well-furnished table in the Province. Prepared his premises on Fort street, and sold by all the principal dealers.

HAVING BEEN NOTIFIED BY MR. WOODS (at the above hour this day) Collector of Votes, that all persons who have signed their registration papers before me, which I witnessed as a Justice of the Peace, may be objected to on the grounds that the Commission which I hold from Sir James Douglas only applies to Saanich District, although the Registration Act only requires that the papers should be signed before a Justice of the Peace, which I am, in case of any doubt I hereby request that all persons who have signed before me will be kind enough to re-register before Mr. Woods to save any difficulty or trouble hereafter. I am a candidate for the City and request all my friends and supporters not to neglect this notice as it might be the means of my losing the election. Further comment is unnecessary.

Reformers.

Be on the alert. The Government is even more alarmed at the new than the old Voters' Lists, and may spring the elections upon you at any moment. Be prepared with your Candidates. Let it not be said that you were taken unawares by the common enemy. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

NANAIMO.

[From the Free Press.]

A number of persons assembled on the Departure Bay road to witness a race between Mr. Peck's horse "Billy" and Mr. Quennell's horse "Billy" from the brow of the hill just beyond the Millstone Bridge to Departure Bay and back. Mr. John Fear (with 50lb. of shot to make weight) rode the firstnamed horse, Mr. Quennell riding his own horse, Mr. Quennell's horse winning the race easily. Distance six miles; time of winning horse 20 minutes. Considerable money changed hands on the event.

About thirty-five availed themselves of Mr. Fawcett's visit to Wellington to register their votes. This makes about 140 registered voters up to the time of writing, and as there are fully 400 eligible to vote, it will readily be seen that quite a number have to register and only a short time to do it in. The time will expire on next Tuesday at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. W. Brunton, of the Black Diamond Hotel, with commendable enterprise and an eye to business, has received permission and will erect a foot bridge from Victoria Crescent to the picnic grounds. This will certainly be a great convenience to all parties visiting the "monster platform" on the 24th.

The bark Shooting Star, Capt. Austin, arrived at San Francisco on the 16th inst. from Mexico with a cargo of lumber and will have immediate dispatch for this port—Douglas Pit.

Tenders are invited up to the 1st prox. for the construction of a wharf in Nanaimo harbor for the Harewood coal mine.

FROM THE EAST COAST.—The steamer Maude arrived about 6 o'clock p. m. yesterday with the following passengers: Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. McTeague, Mrs. Provost, Miss Dunsmuir, Mrs. Griffiths, Mr. Griffiths and son, and Messrs. Love, Hargreaves, George, Wylde, Drinkwater, Jackson, E. White, and Mr. and Mrs. Chelsea. She brought down some oats, potatoes, butter, eggs and four calves from Comox; 3 tons of rough stone for R. Foster, and 40 pieces of dressed stone for Kinsman & Styles for the pillars, &c., in W. & J. Wilson's new building on Government street. She reports the Garza and an American vessel loading at Departure Bay, and that the Nanaimoites kept the 24th up for 3 days and "all went merry as a marriage bell."

THE "CANADIAN ILLUSTRATED NEWS."—The current number has a cartoon representing Sir Hugh Allen in John Bull's shop—the wares being bags of money. Sir Hugh bears in his pocket some 'Montreal Northern Colonization Railway bonds." He looks considerably annoyed and half scared, and pointing to a bull-dog wearing a collar labelled "London Times," says: "Should you not muzzle this ugly cur of yours, Mr. Bull; the brute is constantly snarling at decent people and annoying your best customers." John Bull, standing behind the counter, smilingly replies: "Don't mind him, Sir Hugh, I beg! He's getting old and crusty; we don't mind him ourselves. He's great at barking, but he can't bite!"

THAT BLAST.—Mr. Spence, the contractor, announced that he would discharge his first shot last night. The preparations were made. Five holes were bored into the rock to the depth of 6 or 7 feet and from 2 to 3 inches in diameter. From 2¼ to 3 pounds of giant powder was placed in each, the wires were all arranged, and the electric circuit, controlled by Superintendent McMicking, completed; but from some unexplained cause the charge declined to go off and the rock is still there. The attempt was given up for the night, and wishing Mr. Spence better luck next time, we returned home.

THE new bridge at Nanaimo will require about 130,000 feet of lumber. Only "Burrard Inlet sawed lumber" must be used. Nanaimo lumber is tainted with Liberal principles. "Might shrink if a Government official with a heavy load of corruption crossed it. See?

INDIAN AFFAIS.—It is reported that the Local Government have received a terrible wigging from Lord Carnarvon for their refusal to treat with the Dominion Government on an equitable basis for the settlement of the Indian question.

WM. SUTTON, ESQ., Sheriff of Bruce County, Ontario, arrived on the North Pacific on Thursday. We learn that Mr. Sutton contemplates taking up his residence in the Province.

BURGLARS.—The house of Mrs. Marwick on View street was entered by burglars early yesterday morning. The operators were heard by the family and ran away without having secured any plunder.

THE steamer Otter will sail at 4 o'clock this morning for northern ports. She will have a full freight. Amongst the passengers will be Mr. Hankin and wife, and Mr. Cunningham of Skeena.

MR. HARGRAVES, C. E., returned from the Bute Inlet country last evening. We understand that his report will be favorable.

THE CHURCH DIFFICULTY.—Mr. Justice Gray has given a decision in the case of the Bishop vs the Dean, adversely to to the defendant, with costs.

SILVER.—Mr. HOWSE, C. E., with a party has started to explore the Cascade Range for silver and copper.

The 24th at Nanaimo.

The good people of Nanaimo appear to have taken advantage of the delightful weather to celebrate the 24th inst. in a manner worthy of the occasion. The visitors from Hastings Mills were warmly welcomed to the banquet in the Vancouver Company's warehouse. His Worship Mayor Bate presided, having Mr. Alexander of the Hastings Mill on the right hand. The Rev. Geo. Mason was called upon to ask a blessing, and then ample justice was done to the viands by keen and invigorated appetites. The Mayor proposed "The Queen" which was enthusiastically received and honored. The Mayor then gave "The Visitors" in a short and appropriate speech. This toast was so heartily joined in by our citizens as to leave no doubt in the visitors' minds as to their sincere welcome to Nanaimo. Mr. Alexander, in responding, expressed the extreme gratification of himself and companions at the cordial and handsome reception which had been accorded to them by Nanaimo people, and hoped that the practice of exchanging hospitalities between the two seats of industry of the Province would continue in the future with as much happiness as had hitherto resulted. The party then retired and their ranks were filled with relays of hungry diners.

AT WELLINGTON.

The good people of Wellington celebrated the natal day of England's Queen by a picnic at Diver Lake. A spacious platform had been erected for dancing, and a long table fairly groaned with the weight of the good things upon it. The energetic committee had spared no pains to make the affair pleasant and enjoyable, and their efforts were crowned with complete success. Mr. James deserves special mention for the inimitable manner in which he got up the traditional "Aunt Sally." A number of visitors attended from Nanaimo, ourselves among the number, and were most courteously received and treated. Dancing was kept up with vigor till midnight.

REGISTRATION. — The Sheriff's office will remain open from ten till four o' clock to-day to enable parties wishing to register to do so.

THE New York papers say that the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise will visit Canada this fall.

A BLANK day at the Police Court yesterday.

The 24th Anniversary of "H. B. Majesty's" Birthday, on San Juan Island.

EDITOR COLONIST.—Do you know what it is to have a jolly time? An unalloyed, and thorough feast of pleasure? If not, you should have strained every nerve to have been present at one of the most enjoyable, agreable, and united gatherings extent, held here on the 24th of May, at the very hospitable, English (American) home of our mutual friend, Robert Douglas.

The day was bright and beautiful. As we approached the dwelling of our friend, the old and sacred "Union Jack" was floating gracefully in the breeze, wafting all a warm welcome to the home, where American citizens, with their English brothers, were to unite in celebrating the joyful anniversary of one of the best—the most illustrious of women—the beloved one of every realm—none other than "Happy England's glorious Queen," the immortalized "Victoria Regina."

The programme of entertainment for the day and night was thorough and complete.

The old folks (so called) with their Pastor, Rev. T. J. Weekes, assembled at 4 o'clock p. m. to partake of a sumptuous repast, (dinner). We first repaired to the front parlor, where we met "a fine old English gentleman, one of the ancient type," 73 years of age, who at once proposed a toast to "Her Britannic Majesty" feelingly, and with loving loyalty. After which, he took his "clarionet," and played with much life and feeling. "God save the Queen" "Rule Britannia" concluding with the National Anthem of America, in which—as in the other pieces—all united in singing.

Then we repaired to the dining room, where a grand and most inviting display of the choicest delicacies of the season met our gaze. The blessing of God, appropriate to the occasion, was asked by Rev. Mr. Weeks, and all proceeded to regale themselves as those who know how to enjoy a good "square meal." The dining room was tastefully decorated with evergreens, May blossoms and roses. A fine picture of Her Majesty, with an elegant wreath surrounding it, adorned the head of the table. The "Stars and Stripes" were suspended near it, and the aspect of the room was pleasing beyond description. After dinner was served, we all entered thoroughly into the very acme of enjoyment. We (old folks) were boys and girls again, indorsing in toto the sage remark of Cicero, "A man who has not something of the boy in him is of little account," &c. So we sang, we danced, we smoked, we (pardon us,) drank, but in great moderation,—the people of San Juan strictly adhering to this commendable rule. Good old whiskey all the way from Canada with some of "Uncle Sam's" best brand of brandy, and some of our aespected friend, Mr. R. Lomblad's, home made temperance wine, all was dispensed freely yet with studied care.

Mr. Editor, it would have done you much good to have heard some of the old fashioned songs that were sung, one particularly by our entertaining and sociable friend, Mr. Joseph Sandwith, who sings it ever in a matchless way, especially so when surrounded by a number of the fair sex—with whom he is a particular favorite. The sentiment of the song is, "'Tis better to marry than die an old maid."

We are not favored with many young ladies on our Island, but the few we have are very sensible, as proof of this. They indorse "in toto" the "sentiment" of Mr. Sandwith's song, and I sincerely hope there may not be an old maid among them. Should there be it will be their own fault, there being so many languishing and solitary bachelors around them, not the least discousolate one being the writer of these lines. Pardon this digression, the ruling passion, you know, is strong in life as well as in death.

About 8 o'clock P. M. the young people, laddies and lassies, arrived at the festive scene. Then the ball opened with much spirit, everything being gay and lively, which was kept up till the "wee sma' hours" of morn, (dancing and supper being served all night). The music was excellent, and the party throughout compared favorably with any of your "eclat" celebrations at Victoria, presenting, I have the vanity to presume, as pretty an assemblage as you can get together, for though "cut off" and isolated as some say we are, fortune has favored us with some of creation's noblest appendages, "pretty young ladies" who, are both graceful and attractive, and who have the faculty (at these festive gatherings) of making themselves very agreeable. It is this dominant and most commendable disposition that gives such jollity and general good feeling as is ever found, at our public festivities on San Juan Island.

About 30 couple were present (not counting our babies), and all thoroughly enjoyed another anniversary of England's beloved Queen, leaving the festal scene with grateful thanks, to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, and their affable daughters for the very pleasant, and agreeable entertainment afforded them. Vivat regina.

AN INVITED GUEST.

Our San Francisco Letter.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 18.

There is one pleasure we city folks enjoy, which must of necessity be denied to our country brethren, and that is the pleasure of going to the country when one becomes thoroughly disgusted and worn out with the continual din and noise of the city, and longs for a little rest and quiet. Unfortunately comparatively few of us can afford a trip to the country, even at this inviting season of the year. All whose business and circumstances permit, however, are availing themselves of the delightful weather we are now enjoying to visit the "Springs," some for a few days, some for weeks, and some for the entire season. How provoking it is that we can't all go to the Springs at least once a year.

THE IMMIGRANTS.

Large numbers of immigrants are arriving here now, and the city is consequently full of people. Every hotel is full, as well as everything in the shape of a boarding and lodging-house. The numerous restaurants and every public thoroughfare are doing a thriving business. It has become a question what to do with the immigrant. We have employment offices in abundance, whose especial business, one would suppose, was to provide places for them. But the less an immigrant or any one else wanting work has to do with the private employment offices here the better for him. I speak of them generally. There may be honest men connected with some of them, but from what I have seen of them and from the numerous complaints made, they must be very scarce. Then we have an Immigration Bureau, lately organized, which proposes to point out to such immigrants as desire to invest in land the most eligible locations; and give all other information in reference to soil, climate, price of land, &c. A laudable purpose, one would suppose. But, as usual with most of these benevolent undertakings for the benefit of the supposed-to-be helpless immigrant, there is found to be a private job in the matter upon close investigation. The disinterested individuals who have organized this bureau own large tracts of land in various portions of the State, which they are desirous of selling, and consider the present influx of immigrants as affording a good opportunity. The exposure of their little game by the newspapers has, however, somewhat interfered with their plans. Most of the immigrants arriving seem to prefer to remain in this city; but there are far more men here now than can find employment at anything.

IMPROVEMENTS—THE PALACE HOTEL.

The present growth and improvement of San Francisco are unparalelled in her history. New and substantial buildings are going up in every part of the city. She bids fair in a short time to equal at least some of the older Eastern cities in architectural beauty, though hiherto noted for the irregular and rickety appearance of her buildings. Although there are numerous other fine buildings in course of erection, of course none of them will compare with the famous Palace Hotel. This mammoth structure towers above its fellows on every side, overlooking the Palace Hotel, just opposite, and presenting an unobstructed view of the Bay. It was the boast of the proprietors of the Grand Hotel a year or two ago that there was not a room in the house but what the sun shone in at some portion of the day; but since the completion of the Palace there is a good part of the day when its shade completely envelops the Grand. Some idea of the value of the Palace Hotel property may be obtained when it is stated that $1,750,000 was paid by Mr. Sharon, U. S. Senator and mining operator, to W. C. Ralston, President of the Bank of California, for the half interest of the latter. Sharon is now the sole owner of that and much other property in the neighborhood. The furniture will be put in in July, and the hotel will be under the management of Warren Leland, of the famous family of hotelkeepers of that name in the East. It is not every man who can keep a hotel. Mr. Leland can, if anybody; but there is a growing feeling that the Palace will be an elephant on somebody's hands, and if Mr. Leland can run it profitably, he will have added new laurels to the family name, and be distinguished not only as the prince, but as the shrewdest of landlords

POLITICS.

The political excitement is beginning, and next month, when the conventions for nominating candidates meet, we may look for lively times. Of the three parties in the field the Democracy, so far, have been most active. Their primary elections were held in this city last week. The primaries were said to have resulted favorably for Findley, of Nevada Co., for Governor, although none of the men elected, so far as known, were were pledged to vote in convention for him. Findley is ahead for the Democratic nomination; and, in case the Republicans and Independents run separate candidates, the Democrats will elect their man Governor, whoever he may be. The canvass promises to be an exciting one. In this city no candidate on any ticket for a Municipal office will have any show of election unless his record is clear—that is, if the three parties give the people a choice. The recent exposure of

CORRUPT MUNICIPAL OFFICERS

Has alarmed thinking men of all parties, and awakened them to the necessity of doing something to put a stop to this wholesale robbery. The Assessor of this city was deprived of his office, and his case submitted to the different grand juries. The evidence against him could not be plainer or more direct, that he was guilty of receiving bribes to reduce assessments, and other rascalities, but the grand juries did not indict him. And they had no word of censure for the men who paid him money to have their assessments reduced. But bad as his department was administered, the police department is no better, and, in act, it is the general belief that our whole Municipal government needs a thorough overhauling. These corrupt officers do not all escape, however. The case of ex-Harbor Commissioner, John J. Marks, is an instance in point. After staving off his trial for two or three years, he has been finally convicted of embezzlement, in spite of wealth and influential friends. He is now in jail awaiting sentence, and his counsel are making a last effort to keep him out of the penitentiary.

THE STOCK MARKET

Is quiet, and the bears have everything their own way. Outsiders who deal in stocks have no money to invest, therefore the manipulators do not want to infest the market at present. They are quietly gathering in the stock they intend to send up next.

MLLE. ILMA DE MURSKA,

The Hungarian nightingale, has created quite an excitement here in the operatic and musical world. She appeared at Platt's Hall last week, taking the house by storm. She is a blonde with a delicate face and expressive eyes. She has made the greatest hit of the season, and San Francisco has not seen her equal as an operatic singer, so say the critics and so say the public. G.

The Declaration of Paris.

The Rights of Maritime Nations in Time of War—Did England Surrender Her Supremacy on the Ocean?

(From the Cork Constitution, April 16.)

The defeat of Mr. Baillie Cochrane's motion in the House of Commons does not end, it merely postpones, the consideration of a most important subject. Mr. Cochrane moved, "That in consequence of a conference having been held at Brussels in 1874 on international law, and the proposed renewal of the conference at St. Petersburg this year, a favorable opportunity is afforded to the country of withdrawing the declaration of Paris in 1856, and thus maintaining our maritime rights, so essential to the power, prosperity and independence of the Empire." The discussion was felt to be untimely and inconvenient, and it is quite clear that the rejection of this motion does not pledge the House of Commons against a resumption of the discussion at a more sensible opportunity. Its history is curious. Plenipotentiaries met in Paris in 1856 to conclude the treaty which closed the Crimean war. Having finished this, their only legitimate business, they discussed several matters in which they had no authority to meddle. Among the fruits of this curious conference was a "declaration respecting maritime law," of which the first two articles were as follows:—(1) That privateering is and remains abolished. (2) The neutral flag covers enemies' goods, with the exception of contraband of war. Now it is to be remarked upon this declaration that it is not a treaty in any sense of the word. It was never ratified by the Crown or approved by Parliament. It can at least be only considered as an expression of opinion on the part of Count Walewski and Lord Clarendon, or as their idea of what was at the time the prevailing opinion in France and England. It will be remembered that the doctrines of the Peace party were then at their height. But whether or not the Declaration did truly represent public opinion—which is more than doubtful—it is quite certain that it has no binding force in a legal sense on this country. First, the plenipotentaries had exceeded their power.

This is plain from what Lord Clarendon said shortly after it had been signed, when defending it in the House of Lords: "I can tell your lordships it was no easy matter to accomplish, even with a dozen negotiators; but if a thousand more had been called in, with the addition of the daily newspapers, it would have been quite impossible. If we had confined ourselves within the strict limits of our attributions we should have lost the opportunity when the representatives of the principal powers of Europe were met together to discuss many important subjects, which, although they did not relate to our quarrel with Russia, it was most desirable should be arranged." And, as we have said before, it was not ratified by the Crown, nor approved by Parliament or the country. It may be interesting to hear that some representative men on both sides of politics have thought of this declaration from time to time. Thus the late Lord Derby said: "Whatever losses Russia may have suffered by this war, whatever embarrassments she may have experienced, I hesitate not to say that they are more than compensated by the adoption of that one article gratuitously inserted by the French and British plenipotentiaries, by which in the words of Mr. Pitt, you have sacrificed the maritime greatness of England on the shrine of Russia." Lord John Russell thus recognized the fact that it could not have the force of a treaty, while he feared that it might become the basis on which a treaty would be negotiated: "The rules that free bottoms make free goods, and the goods of a belligerent are safe in neutral vessels, have already been regarded as injurious to the supremacy of maritime power of England. I hope no Minister will set his seal to a treaty containing any stipulation of this kind without the most cautious deliberation. So recently as 1871 the subject was under discussion in the House of Commons. Mr. S Cave spoke of it as a suicidal act on the part of this country, which must inevitably cripple our resources in the event of war. And Mr. Disraeli then said, "The stipulations of the Declaration of Paris were impolitic, and tended to cripple or weaken the strength of this country; but, so far as we are concerned, we must emancipate ourselves from its trammels in a regular manner." Lord Colchester thus put the disadvantage under which it would place his country in case of war with a maritime power which had not signed it: "If we were at war with America, who had not signed the Declaration, America would seize our goods in French or Russian bottoms; while we, bound by this treaty, could not seize American property in the vessels of any nation which was a party to the treaty. He thought it was an agreement injurious to the power of England, and injurious also to the highest interests of the world." We could multiply, almost without limit, similar expressions of disapproval by men of all parties. It is quite clear that the statesmen of England do not consider this declaration binding upon us, and that, therefore, in the event of a war they would refuse to act upon it. The very statement of these facts constitutes the very strongest argument for disavowing the document. If we wait until necessity forces us to take this step, our doing so will certainly be open to the suspicion of acting unfairly with a view to our own advantage.

At present we would almost appear to be sailing under false colors, and it would be desirable, if possible without danger of complications, that an unmistakeable declaration on the subject should be made by Parliament.

English Mail.

In the House of Commons lately there was another attempt made to induce the First Lord of the Admiralty to reverse his decision against sending a chaplain with the Arctic expedition. He was asked if he could not set aside one of the scientific men already appointed, and send a chaplain in his place. Mr. Hunt replied that he really could not do it. On one of the ships there would be sixty-two officers and men, on the other fifty-nine, all told. Each ship has to carry provisions and stores for three years, and every square inch of room was occupied. There were to be two doctors for each ship, but absolutely there was no room for a parson. The men would have to do their own praying, or else have the captain do it for them. There is great dissatisfaction at this decision, however, and the "Daily Telegraph" tells Mr. Hunt that he must send a chaplain, even if he has to swing a hammock for him.

In England, Ireland, and Scotland the total amount of spirits consumed in 1874 was 20,875,201 gallons. So far as Ireland is concerned this showed a decrease of 25,000 gallons as compared with the amount consumed in 1873, while in England and Scotland there was an increase of 991,990 gallons. At the same time, the consumption of beer in Ireland increased, while the consumption of beer in England and Scotland decreased. This furnishes a new illustration of the fact that the increase of beer drinking is accompanied by a decrease in spirit drinking, and "vice versa." There is an enormous amount of business done in the United Kingdom both in spirits and beer. In 1874 £41,574,134 were paid for spirits and £72,932,426 for beer by the people of England, Scotland, and Ireland—a sum which must be very discouraging to the temperance reformers. In America there has been a very marked falling off in the consumption of lager beer during the last year, and a corresponding decrease in the demand for barley and hops.

ONE incident of the recent celebration at Lexington shows that the embattled ruffian was compelled to take to his heels or be compelled to hear fire the shot that would rattle round his head. One old gentleman named Wood thought it would be a neat thing to fly upon his house top the union-jack as well as the emblem of his own country. All day the twin banners braved the battle and the breeze, and no unkindly remark was made; but, after nightfall, a party of rum-inflated roughs, whose patriotism could not brook the presence on that day of the flag which, on that same spot a hundred years before, was trailed in the dust, made a demonstration in front of the house, with intent to tear down the flaunting crimson. A correspondent tells what followed:—"The major took from his his hall an old Tower musket, which had been picked up near his house a century ago, walked out upon his door steps, his white hair bristling in the moonlight, and as the mob halted before him he said to them, 'Fellows, I am aware of your mission. The first man of you who lays a hand on that flag, or offers it the least indignity, is a dead man!' There was a pause. 'Right about! march!' added the grim old major, bringing his musket to ready, and at the click of cocking, the gang did 'right about' and march 'double quick' down the avenue."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

This compound of the vegetable alteratives, Sarsaparilla, Dock, Stillingia and Mandrake with the Iodides of Potassium and Iron makes a most effectual cure of a series of complaints which are very prevalent and afflicting. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, that undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of the same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange, and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidney, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhea arising from internal ulceration and uterine Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

An excellent remedy for all affections of the chest; it relieves coughs, effectually prevents nocturnal perspiration, and restores the patient's strength. This syrup is the only one which, ever since 1857, has invariably been attended with satisfactory results—a fact due to the purity of the hypophosphite employed. Be sure to observe that it bears the signature of Grimault and Co., on bottles of an oval shape, the syrup being always of a rose colour.

Composed of the essence extracted from the plant so called, they have been constantly employed with the most brilliant success in a certain class of contagious disease.

They combine extraordinary efficacy with the advantage of never causing nausea, eructations, or pains in the stomach, as do the gelatinous capsules which contain Balsam of Copahu in a liquid state; or the strictures which result from the use of injections having a metalic basis.

To Mr. THOMAS KEATING,

"SIR,—My two little girls, aged respectively three and two years, showed symptoms of having worms, so I obtained some of your Worm Bon Bons from Mr. Bushby, and they effected such a thorough cure—in fact, I think, saved their lives. DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

(Ex Army Med Staff)

CHLORODYNE

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE,

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P Wood stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE: that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr J Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne: that they prescribe it largely and mean no other than Dr Browne's—See TIMES, July 12, 1864.

The Public therefore are cautioned against using any other than

DR J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This INVALUABLE REMEDY produces quiet, or freshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the nervous system restores the deranged functions and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvelous good effects and wonderful cures while medical men extol its virtues most extensively using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Diseases in which it is found eminently useful—Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colics, Coughs, Asthma Cramp Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Cough, Hysteria, &c.

The Right Hon Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J T Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet Dec 31, 1864.

From A Montgomery, Esq., late inspector of Hospitals, Bombay: Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy for Neuralgia, Asthma and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health after eighteen months severe suffering, and when other medicines had failed

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India reports [Dec 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr Collis Browne's Chlorodyne was administered the patient recovered.

Extract from Medical Times, Jan 10, 1866—Chlorodyne is prescribed by scores of orthodox remedical practitioners. Of course it would not thus be singularly popular did it not supply a want and fill a place.

Extract from the general Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.

Beware of spurious and dangerous compounds sold as CHLORODYNE from which frequent fatal results have followed

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug 1, p369, which states that Dr J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne: that it is always right to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered. Sold in bottles at 1s 1½d, 2s 9d, 4s 6d, and 11s each.

CAUTION—None genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
